

Internship I , II

～GRM Open Lecture in English～

What is like, working for an International Cooperation NGO?

世界の子どもを児童労働から守るNGO ACE[エース]より講師をお招きし、インターンシップについて、また「なぜNGOなのか?」「NGOの意義」などをテーマにお話しいただきます。

This time we will be hosting Mr. Akira Kondo, as a guest speaker from Action against Child Exploitation (ACE), an NGO based in Japan that address the issues of child labour around the world. The guest will be talking about how you do internships and the meaning and purpose of working for an international NGO.

《PROFILE》

Mr. Kondo has earned master's degree on "International Development" at Nagoya University. He joined to Amnesty International and Africa Japan Forum as an intern, and worked as a volunteer for JICA in Ghana and Uganda. Later, he worked for JAICAF (Japan Association for International Collaboration of Agricultural and Forestry) as a domestic supporting staff in "Afghanistan National Agricultural Experiment Stations Rehabilitation Project", and for Oriental Consultants Co., Ltd. as a researcher for "the Construction of 2nd Nile River Bridge in Uganda". Recently, he has been a member of NPO ACE (Action against Child Exploitation) since April of 2012. He visits Ghana regularly to monitor the situation. Beside that, he has been an adviser of Afri-Can, a citizen network for TICAD since March of 2014.

GRM students, candidates, and anyone interested in working for international NGOs are warmly welcome. If you wish to attend the lecture, please send an email to GRM Office with your name, student ID and e-mail address.
