

GRM Program Career Seminar

Career Building and Networking in Japan

Language : English and Japanese

Program for Leading Graduate School 'Global Resource Management (GRM)' provides great opportunities for students to meet people who are active in various fields after completion of graduate schools, and to make a career choice. (All students welcome.)

H.E. Dr. Norbert PALANOVICS, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Hungary will speak about his foreign student experiences, career building and networking in Japan in the first half. We will also have a Q&A session in the second half.

3rd December (Thr.) 12:20pm~1:10pm
Ryoshinkan 418 and Online Lecture on Zoom

For more information, please visit the GRM website

Hungary Ambassador to Japan
H.E. Dr. Norbert PALANOVICS

Dr. Norbert Palanovics is the Ambassador of Hungary to Japan. He was born in Pecs. He first arrived in Japan in 2002. His PhD thesis about Japan's peacebuilding-based ODA diplomacy was successfully defended at Nagoya University in 2008. He was later invited back to Nagoya University as a visiting professor. He was appointed Ambassador of Hungary to Japan in 2016.

Dr. Norbert Palanovics speaks Japanese, English, Spanish, German and Hungarian. His hobbies include food culture, movies, sports, traveling, exploring and understanding new cultures.

CONTACT : GRM Office, Doshisha University
Advanced Doctoral Program in Global Resource Management

GRM
Website

