

1st Global Career Design 2015

~ Open Lecture ~

Speaker:

Ms. Mehrnaz Mostafavi
Chief of Human Security Unit, United Nations

Lecture

She will give us a lecture about what achievement she has made through her current position, how she developed her own career, and what it means to work for the UN and other development assistance related organizations.

Career

At United Nations (HSU), she is responsible for the advancement of the human security concept around the world as well as its translation into UN funded activities under the UN Trust Fund for Human Security (UNTFHS).

Prior to joining the HSU, she was the Public Information Officer at the Secretariat of the Advisory Board on Human Security (ABHS) and actively engaged in promoting the Commission on Human Security.

Before joining the ABHS, she was a consultant at the Bureau for Development Policy (BDP) at the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and provided the policy guidance on a wide range of issues including inclusive globalization, pro-poor trade and poverty reduction.
