Theme: Peace and War: The View from Russia (A Documentary Film, 47 Minutes)

This new film represents a rare insight look at the motivations behind Russia's foreign policy explained by the people who help shape the Kremlin's ideology.

このドキュメンタリーフィルムでは、ロシア政府のイデオロギーを形作る人々による、ロシア外交政策の裏にある動機について探ります。

The Storyline of the Film (Content)

Not since the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 has the Kremlin seemingly wielded so much influence in international affairs. This very much fits in with Putin's ideological makeup. As a former Soviet spy based in Germany, he was very invested in Russia expanding its sphere of influence... and was certainly not adverse to the use of skullduggery to achieve these goals.

What is Russia hoping to achieve and who are the people devising the strategy that has put Russian President Vladimir Putin as a lead actor on the world stage?

This rare and captivating new documentary film is the trying to answer the question.

You are welcome and free to join watching the documentary film.

We will have free talk and discussion afterwards about the film and related issues and views.
